Further Conversation on Guns in America

Initial Questions

- Do you think the constitution (parts or all of it) is outdated?
- Should editing the constitution be easy or difficult?
- Do you feel connected to the constitution in 2021?

Consequences

- What are the risks of interpreting loosely?
- Can you think of any historical or current examples of the consequences of interpreting/editing the constitution?

A different cause

- Is American culture overly focused on guns?
- Is culture controllable? How?
- What does this culture stem from?

To Edit or not to Edit...

- Are tragic cases like the Kyle Rittenhouse situation and recent Michigan High School shooting preventable?
- Would constitutional or state law help the issue? (i.e. physical acts of congress, etc)
- Or is the issue resolved through an attempted culture change?
