

Town Hall IX

December 11, 2020

Announcements

- Jonny
- Jacob Pofsky
- Zoe Ritz
- Mrs. Hametz
- Rachel Blumoffe, Joshua Gamson, Nathan Soussana
- Ms. Wilner

Meme of the Week

By Evan Beller

Vort of the Week 🧊🧊!! 100 100 100 🥰

“Chanukah candles are the light Judaism brings to the world when we are unafraid to announce our identity in public, live by our principles and fight, if necessary, for our freedom.” - Rabbi Lord Jonathan Sacks

Personal Liberty vs.
Common Good: COVID Safety

Poll

Social Distance

- Do you ever break social distance rules? Why?
  - A. yes
  - B. no
- For those who social distance, what motivates you to?

More Questions

---

- If you don't follow all of the COVID guidelines, do you ever worry that you're going to spread COVID to your friends/ family?

Zooming Out

- Which is more important- individual liberties or the common good?
  - A. Individual liberties
  - Common good
- Is following COVID guidelines what is best for the common good? (Think about factors beyond health)

Risks

- It is understood that any social activity increases risks of spreading COVID.
  - As a society, how do we decide what activities are ok to take risks on and which aren't?
  - Should mental health be taken in to account, or just physical health?
-

Balance

---

- How can we strike a balance between maintaining our own mental health and maintaining the community's physical health?
- Should people be able to find this balance on their own or should the government regulate it?
- Should we even have a balance?