

Town Hall

14

A large, dark blue, diagonal shape that starts from the bottom left corner and extends towards the top right corner, covering the lower half of the page.

Announcements

Thank you Rabbi Schwarzberg!

- Wonderful 11 year career
- Dedicated teacher
- 30.8 dress codes per year
- 8x Agenda advisor
- 13x aggressive texts per week

On a serious note, thank you Rabbi Schwarzberg! You're time here has been appreciated and we wish you luck in your position at DRS.

Thank you Rabbi Tsaidi for taking on his role on Agenda and Dean of Students.

Congratulations to Alon Keiter!

SHA♔HEVET

Meme of the Week

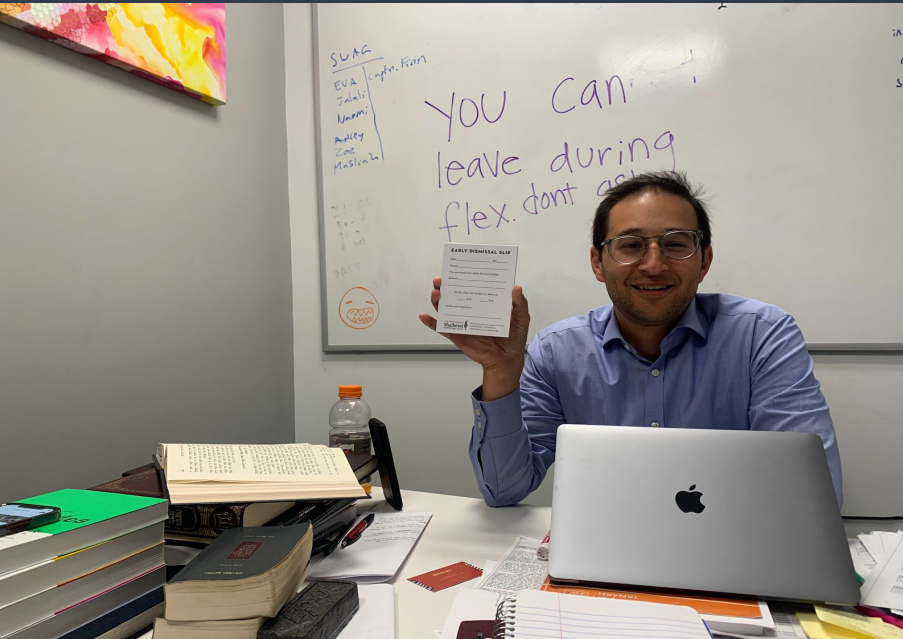

Outfit of the Week

Exit Slips

Exit Slips

- What's your reaction to the exit slips?
- Why were they instituted?
- Was it done fairly?
- Are there any other solutions to this?
 - Are they a necessary evil?

Ought

- How can admin make proper changes within the bounds of the JC?
- How should Shalhevet respond if there's a problem on the student side?
 - I.e. attendance, dress code, hashkama, leaving food in classrooms
- Should Shalhevet consult students in some way or another for every policy?
 - Even when students are at fault?

Is

- Generally, do Shalhevet students hold up their end of the Just Community?
- How much should other comparable schools influence our policy?
- Is the Just Community a privilege or a right?
 - Do we deserve to have the rights of the Just Community if we do not hold up our part?

“Off campus privileges are not granted during FLEX periods, nor are students allowed off campus after breakfast and before lunch on Tuesdays.”

Student Handbook

Flex

10:45-11:35

FLEX

- What is the purpose of flex?
- Why should or shouldn't students leave during flex? (Consider both sides)
- Faculty: What do you use flex for?